Two More Top Rinks To Attend Cactus Pheasant Classic

Koe and Stoughton Will Attend Cactus Pheasant Classic

Four of the Five Top Ranked Teams on the World Curling Tour have been confirmed for Cactus Pheasant Classic

Two more top teams in the world will be attending the Cactus Pheasant Classic November 1st to 4th in Brooks.

Number 4th ranked Kevin Koe, (Koe ee') curling out of Saville Sports Centre in Edmonton, will be part of the field of 24 going after the prize money of $70,000.

Koe is the 2000 Canadian Mixed Champion and was the 2007 runner-up to the Alberta Provincials.

Jeff Stoughton, curling out of Charleswood Curling Club in Winnipeg will also be attending the Brooks event. Stoughton is currently ranked 5th in the world. Stoughton won the 1996 World Championship, won the brier twice, the Canadian mixed championships twice and is a 5 time Manitoba champion.

Stoughton and Koe join curlers Kevin Martin, ranked number 1 and Randy Ferbey, ranked number 3, who have already committed to attending the Cactus Pheasant Classic. With four of the five top teams in the world, curling fans will see some of the best curling in the world.

More top rinks are expected to be announced in the near future.

This will be a major event for Brooks and for curling in Alberta with sponsorship availabilities. Those businesses who are interested in becoming a sponsor in some capacity for the event are asked to call Duane Perkins or Scott Egger.
